

Alpha International Training Content Videographer

Contract position | New Westminster, BC

Description:

Alpha International is a global non-profit organization that exists to serve and equip the local church in its mission to help people discover and develop a relationship with God. Originally based in London, U.K., Alpha International has recently opened up a new office in New Westminster in partnership with Alpha Canada. There is an exciting opportunity for an individual to join Alpha International's Training Content Team to be responsible for video production of all international training content.

The Training Content Videographer will work alongside the Training Lead Producer to execute the production of video projects. The videographer must be versatile in skillset and should be able to wear many different hats depending on the scope and scale of the project. Projects will range from large scale productions to smaller, quick content.

The videographer will be involved in the entire process of video projects from storyboarding and pre-production to filming and post-production, and will work alongside the Training Content Team to deliver on multiple projects. The main focus of these video projects will be around developing content to support Church Leaders and Alpha Administrators to run Alpha effectively.

Expertise / Experience:

- At least 2 years experience in filmmaking/videography
- Refined cinematography skills
- Experience in Adobe Creative Suite including Premiere Pro & After Effects
- Able to manage a broader production team
- Proven high standard of quality for work
- Good interpersonal and communication skills

Responsibilities (what you get to do):

- Film and edit training video content
- Manage and organize production schedules and details
- Design film projects with Lead Producer and broader Training Content Team
- Liaise with external vendors and contractors on larger video projects
- Package film projects for international delivery

Compensation:

Salary is competitive within the non-profit sector of our size, and commensurate with experience.

How to apply:

We are looking for the most passionate, driven person to join our team because we believe our work has eternal significance.

By June 20th, please submit a cover letter, your resume, and any examples of work to daniel.roe@alpha.org, or mail to the following address noting:
